One beautiful day Emily was walking to her friend's house all of a sudden it turned very dark. Emily looked up into the sky but she could not see any stars, so she started walking, all of a sudden Emily fell through a scary dark hole. Emily landed and she didn't know where she was.

So Emily walked until she found a man. He looked at her weirdly, but then she looked at the man again and he had a space suit on. So when we looked at both of us, he took us to his house. But when Emily got there, it looked weird, but the man told Emily it was a rocket, so we went in and set off.

When we got there, we got out and were on the moon. Emily saw a dancing star. They carefully walked, looking up at the sky. Emily said to the man that she loved it. He said that it was lovely. After they sat down on the moon to have a rest. Then they got back in the rocket. Emily fell back down the hole, it was scary and dark again.
